March 1, 2016 vs Kewaskum
Port Washington 46
Kewaskum 43

The Pirates entered their first playoff game as an underdog versus Kewaskum but the Pirates refused to go down easily.

After falling behind early the Pirates continued to fight back but entered halftime still trailing by 4. The second half saw the team get contributions from many players as the Pirates were able to over take the Indians with a gritty 46-43 victory.

Freshman Adam Baierl led the team with 12 points. Seniors Alex and Brad Burbach and Sophomore Jordan Gardipee had 8 points. Ollie Giersch came off the bench to knock down 2 threes. Brad Burbach also had 6 steals to help turn the tide.

March 4, 2016 vs Beaver Dam
Port Washington 55
Beaver Dam 79

The Pirates took on the Golden Beavers of Beaver Dam Friday night in a Regional Semi-Final.

The Beavers got off to a hot start and never looked back.

Senior Brad Burbach closed out his High School career with a career high 21 points. Senior Alex Burbach had 8 points and Sophomore Jordan Gardipee had 9 points.

CHARACTER COUNTS

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Congratulations to Brad Burbach on being chosen this week's Character Counts Athlete of the Week. Brad just completed his third year as a Varsity Basketball Player. In Brad's first 2 years of Varsity basketball he played the supporting role to other upperclassmen teammates and embraced that role by playing great defense, taking charges, and rebounding. In Brad's 3rd year he had to take on a vastly different role of leading scoring and leading rebounder. He took the new role head on, on and off the court. Brad was a team leader by showing up to every workout, open gym, practice, and game. Brad showed the young guys in the Boys basketball program how to do things the right way. Congratulations to Brad for a very successful 4 years! Good Luck to him in the future.

Congratulations Brad!!!
