2 Singles Aaron Montreal fell to his opponent 1-6, 3-6. Aaron hustled and moved around the court throughout his entire match. He put it all on the line and did a great job.

ahead, and at times he did, but his opponent always battled back to earn the point.

Boys Varsity Golf by Scott Kosidowski

Game Date: Apr 12, 2017

The varsity golf team participated in the Early Bird Invite at THE BULL on April 12th with a new format (3 -2man scramble) and with part of the team on spring break, the team posted very respectable scores. The team of Antonio Feciskonin/Zach Kirmse posted a score of 85 and the team of Nolan Mueller/Reilly Sullivan shot an 80! Very well done considering Zach, and Reilly were playing in only their 2nd varsity contest!

Score

PIRATES: 6

WHITEFISH BAY: 5

The Pirates were forced to change a home game to an away game due to bad field conditions at TJ. The Pirates made the best of it and took a 4-1 lead in the 2nd inning, but after a couple of errors in the 6th...Whitefish Bay took a 1 run lead. The Pirates came roaring back in the 7th to score 2 runs to retake the lead. The Pirates shut Bay down 1, 2, 3 in the 7th to hold on for the win.

The game was another great team effort.

PIRATES: 0

KEWASKUM, RANDOM LAKE: 0

The Pirates played a better game in the second game of the Triangular against Random Lake, but after falling behind early...they just didn't have enough to come back all the way. The defense was more sure handed then in the 1st game, but the bats weren't quite enough to overcome the Rams. The Pirates lost 8=4
