CHARACTER COUNTS

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Congratulations to Joe Probst on being chosen this week's Character Counts Athlete of the Week. Joe, a sophomore, is playing varsity golf in his 1st season on the golf team! He is a hard working individual and a true team player. Having recently picked up the game of golf, Joe is quickly learning how to manage a golf course and making good decisions resulting in the improvement that he has displayed. Besides golf, Joe is also involved in The Best Buddies Program and DECA. His favorite subject in school is Accounting.

Congratulations Joe!!!

Girls Varsity

Soccer by Mike Bultman

April 19, 2016 vs Whitefish Bay

Port Washington 0
Whitefish Bay 3

The girls headed to Whitefish Bay HS to take on the conference foe Blue Dukes. The girls had a well disciplined defensive first half that led to a 0-0 stalemate at the break. The state ranked Blue Dukes took advantage of a couple defensive lapses and also created a nice score over a quick 10 minute period of the second half and then held the Port team at bay (excuse the pun) to walk away from a tough fought match with a 3-0 victory. Port had a very steady solid performance from the group defensively with Goalkeeper Allison Lessila producing a handful of highlight reel saves.

Girls Varsity Soccer Cont'd

April 22, 2016 vs Ozaukee

Port Washington 3
Ozaukee 0

The Girls Started the Port Quad off with a tough game against the perennially tough Ozaukee Warriors. Playing without Team Captain Sarah Spaeth the Pirates went into the game knowing they were going to need to step up to fill the void. Payton Hurley did just that.

Playing alongside a withdrawn forward Megan Barian, and Brooke Lund moved up into Sarah's spot Payton took control of the game. An early goal from midfielder Maria Ehrlich, off a feed from Meghan Vande Boom, gave the Pirates all the goals they would need. With the Pirates' defense holding the high powered warriors in check Ehrlich and Vande Boom combined for another goal before the break. With Hurley and Barian controlling the middle of the field and a nice combination of outside halfbacks challenging the Warriors the score stayed the same until Megan Barian got the final goal off a feed from Lund to finish up the score at 3-0. The Pirates will, again, face the Madison Edgewood Crusaders in the final of their Quad after Madison Edgewood beat New Holstein in the first game of the evening.

April 23, 2016 vs Madison Edgewood

Port Washington 2
Madison Edgewood 1

For the second year in a row the Pirates took on the Madison Edgewood Crusaders for the title of the Port Quad. Quite a difference from 2015s 4-4 tie, the 2 teams were locked in a battle of wills. A short handed Pirate Squad leaned on the strength of their defense and goalkeeper, to hold off a hard charging Madison Edgewood offense. With every last bit of energy they could muster the Pirates took the Crusaders to a penalty kick shootout after a 0-0 tie. Unfortunately the Port girls fell to their opponent 1-2 in the shootout with Alli Klotz scoring the long goal "from the spot" Keeper Allison Lessila had 2 nice saves on kicks from the Edgewood players. Good job this weekend girls.

April 19, 2016 vs Grafton

Port Washington 1
Grafton 13

The Pirates played Grafton very tough through 3 innings. In the 4th inning several errors did the Pirates in and they ended up falling short with a 13-1 loss.

Next up....Germantown

Boys Varsity Tennis by Jennifer Garven

April 19, 2016 vs Milwaukee Lutheran

Port Washington 4
Milwaukee Lutheran 3

The first conference match of the season had Port on the road to Western Racquet Club in Elm Grove. Despite a 50% chance of rain, and a rash of rain sprinkles, Port took the lead in all three doubles matches, as play began. Ken Zacher struggled against Zack Peppel, dropping both sets without a game. Kyle Zacher (4S) took London Steele to task (6-1, 6-1), while Aaron Montreal (3S) took Ralph Ray Monticello in straight sets (6-2, 6-3). Meanwhile on the doubles courts, Alex Burbach / Charles Schlessinger lost 4-6, 3-6. 2D Jimmy Clarke / Jack Larson easily handed Zack Effort / Andrew Hint 6-1, 6-2. 3D Wojciehowski / Wehner duo lost their early lead, 4-6, 4-6. At this point, Port and Milwaukee Lutheran had 3 matches each. 2S Ethan Hoag lost his first set 5-7 to Isaac Schmidt. He came back 6-3 in the second set. He was down 0-3 on the third set, and in a 'nail biter' Ethan edged his way back, and seized the third set (7-5), giving PORT the match win. GREAT JOB!!!

Boys Varsity Tennis Cont'd

April 21, 2016 vs Whitefish Bay

Port Washington 1
Whitefish Bay 6

Ever strong Whitefish Bay swept all four singles wins, but Port's fighting spirit denied their opponents a clean sweep. 1D Clarke / Larson secured a game in the second set. Huebner / Wehner came out strong in the first set (6-4), but dropped sets 2 and 3. 2D Burbach / Schlessinger took the first set 7-6 (7-3); lost a close second set 5-7, then rallied back, despite a shoulder injury on Schlessinger right side, 6-4. Way to go, PDUB Two Dubs!!

Boys Varsity Track by Mark Pasten

April 21, 2016 Falcon Invite

The boys traveled to Whitnall on Thursday to compete with a group of mostly JV athletes a varsity invitational. As would be expected low places were hard to come by. Some of the high lights included a 2nd place finish of the 4 x 200 meter relay team composed of Patrick Zamora, Nick Landowski, Deron Spicer and Jake Lippe. Michael Murphy tied for 1st in the pole vault with a personal best effort of 12 feet. Faser Toal finished in 4th place in the 1600 meters and 5th place in the 800 meters. Brett Grisar finished in 4th place in the 3200 meters. The 4 x 400 meter relay of Noah Irish, Zach Wehner, Jake Lippe and Anthony Masters finished in 3rd place. Jake Lippe finished in 5th place in the high jump and Sam Fritsch finished in 4th place in the pole vault.

April 22, 2016 West Bend Invite

On Friday the boys competed in the 18 team Spartan Invite and finished in 13th place with 14 points. The best finish of the day was the 4 x 800 meter relays 2nd place finish. That team was composed of Eli Olson, Max Noll, Nolan Olson and TJ Kasdorf. The other athletes who were able to earn points for the team were: Nick Bath with a 5th place finish in the 1600 meter run, Nolan with an 8th place finish in the 300 meter hurdles and Kyle Casasola with an 8th place finish in the discus throw. Next up for the boys is a meet on Friday at Pewaukee.
