CHARACTER COUNTS

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Abby Becker, one of only 2 seniors on the squad, and a second year captain, has truly picked up her game and her leadership. She has played the entire season with her arm wrapped in a sling due to a broken radial head (somewhere in her forearm I'm told), but has been, solidly the most dangerous player on the field for Port. Abby has taken a group of girls with good talent and connected them as teammates and truly leads by example. She has truly added a positive character to this years group of girls. She has shown that you can play with great competitiveness' AND great character. We are extremely proud to call Abby one of ours. She is truly Port Pride.

Congratulations Abby!!!

Girls Varsity Soccer by Mike Bultman

April 28, 2015 vs Cedarburg

Pirates: 0
Cedarburg: 8

The Pirates took the field against a league leading Cedarburg squad having been hit hard by the injury bug. This night saw 4 starters on the bench and many others nicked up. The decimated Pirate squad could not hold up to a Bulldog squad in attack mode and fell 0-8 on the night.

April 30, 2015 vs Kewaskum

Pirates: 1
Kewaskum: 0

The girls were back at home for a non-conference battle with the Kewaskum Indians. With now 5 starters on the bench the Pirates fought hard throughout the contest and with a goal in the 80th minute by Sarah Spaeth, of a rebound from a shot from Megan Barian they were able to gut out a win and hope to continue to improve as the team health improves. A staunch defensive effort by Brooke Effinger, Hailee VandeBoom, Natalie Lippe and Olivia Large helped Carolyn Erlich record her first varsity shut-out.

Girls Varsity Softball by Bob Snook

April 28, 2015 vs Whitefish Bay

Pirates: 8
Whitefish Bay: 5

The Lady Pirates bounced back on Tuesday vs Whitefish Bay. The team came out swinging and had 11 hits. Leading the way was Maggie Schmit...who went 2-4 with an over the fence HR, Emily Egan...who went 2-3 and Haley Erlandson who hit a triple. The defense also tightened up and played well including a nice diving catch by Jenni Fidler. Kate Snook pitched a complete game for her 4th win with 5 strikeouts and only 2 walks. Up next...Germantown.

April 23, 2015 vs Germantown

Pirates: 3
Germantown: 10

The Lady Pirates couldn't get it done this evening. They played a good game, but a few errors and timely hits by the WarHarks did them in. The Pirates did get some nice hits...lead by Amanda Kaiser who went 3-4, but just couldn't get it done. Kate Snook pitched for the Pirates and took the loss. Next up Homestead at Home!

May 4, 2015 vs Homestead

Pirates: 3
Homestead: 12

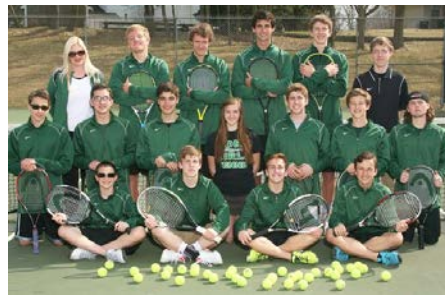

The Lady Pirates softball team could only manage one hit during the game against Homestead. I mistake filled 1st inning was the undoing for Port. After that, they settled and played pretty well but couldn't over come the hole that was dug. Next up Nicolet.

Girls Varsity Softball Cont'd

Boys JV Tennis by Robert Vollbrecht

April 28, 2015 vs Nicolet

Pirates: 4
Nicolet: 3

The JV Mens' Tennis squad beat North Shore rival, Nicolet, 4-3, in a home match, Tuesday, April 28th. Number one singles, Aaron Montreal, played a steady match with his opponent, pulling out a 7-5 win. Number two singles player Kyle Zacher and his opponent rallied to a 7-7 score, before Zacher took the lead and ultimately scored two consecutive games for a 9-7 win. Number one doubles duo Jake Schmit and Alex Hurley easily outplayed their opponents, taking a 7-2 win, while the three doubles team, Austin Wojciehowski and first time tennis player Ezra Bretl, dominated the net for a 7-4 victory. Way to go, Port!

Boys Varsity Tennis by Robert Vollbrecht

April 30, 2015 vs Cedarburg

Pirates: 0
Cedarburg: 7

On a good day for tennis, many of the pirates had a slow start in their first set. Most of the team picked up their game in the second set, but it was too little too late as the team went winless against Cedarburg. One highlight was at 2 singles where Jimmy Clarke had a chance to serve for the match, but came up short in a tight one 4-6, 6-4, 5-7.

Boys Varsity

Track by Mark Pasten

May 1, 2015 St. Norberts Elite Invite

The boys finished in 5th place out of 15 teams with 57 points at the St. Norberts Elite Invite. The meet was won by Lakeland Union with 115.5 points, with Neenah in 2nd with 110 points. Some of the top performers were:

Jake Krapfl: 2nd in the 110m hurdles and 4th in the high jump

Alec Masters: 2nd in the 100m dash and 4th in the 200m dash

The 4 x 800 relay of Nick Michalowski, Eagan Norman, Eli Olson, and Max Noll took 2nd place

Michalowski: 2nd place in the 3200m run

Zach Peer: 4th place in the pole vault

Girls Varsity

Track by Joe Adamak

May 1, 2015 St. Norberts Elite Invite

The Girls ran well in a very competitive field featuring many of the best performances in the state to date. Top finishers for the Pirates were from:

Natalie Bozikowski - 2nd in Triple Jump

Kylee Paradowski - 6th in the High Hurdles

Alexis Reichardt - 6th in the High Jump

Anna Sandberg - 8th in the Long Jump
