CHARACTER COUNTS

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Shem Castillo

This week's Character Counts Athlete of the Week is Freshmen Wrestler, Shem Castillo. There are several standout wrestlers on the team that are very deserving of this honor. But as a first year wrestler, Shem has been amazing! He actually has NEVER played a sport until wrestling this season. Off the mat, Shem is a leader in the classroom and is an outstanding piano player! Shem is undefeated on JV (winning 2 tournaments) and has been great in limited varsity action. Against Nicolet, Shem had a key pin to seal the victory in the dual meet. At our Northern Exposure Duals over winter break, Shem finished 4-3 with a key pin over a Mineral Point opponent that out-weighted him by 60 lbs! On top of never playing a sport, Shem has also never touched a weight! He has already done some tremendous weight room feats as well! Shem's positive attitude and work ethic is contagious! Shem has a very bright future ahead of him!

Congratulations Shem!

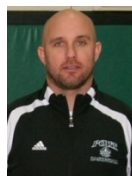

BOYS

SWIMMING & DIVE by Melissa Hoogester

The Conference Relays are really enjoyed by the guys because the entire meet consists of relays. They have the opportunity to swim events which are all team efforts and also swim events not offered in a regular meet. The North Shore Conference was invited to Grafton for this event with a total 13 events. The evening began with our divers; Theis, and Schmidt diving in for us. They had an awesome meet; they finished first place as a relay diving event with their combined score 354.90, great job guys way to get the team off on an awesome start! Next up was the 100 Medley relay: G. Patterson, C. Patterson, Seitz, and J. Huebner finishing sixth place with their time, 1:08.41 The 200 Freestyle relay: Turney, Garret F., Seitz and Orvis were up next; they finished an awesome fifth place with their time, 1:53.01. M. Huebner, Orvis, Graeme, and J. Huebner were up next for the 400 Medley relay; they finished sixth place with their time, 4:49.83. The 400 IM relay, where each guys swims a 100 IM, was swum by: Norman, Huegerich, Garret F., and Hadacek. They finished another awesome fifth place with their time, 4:49.04. The 800 Free relay, where each guy swims a 200 Free was swum by: Sharbuno, Meier, W. Roller and Miller who finished fifth place with their time, 8:40.46. The 300 backstroke relay team: Norman, Garret F., W. Roller, and Miller were up next. This team stacked full of all our backstrokers had an awesome race finishing fourth place with their time, 3:14.43. The 500 Crescendo relay starts with a 50, then a 100, then a 150 and finally a 200 was swum by: Huebner, Huegerich, Sharbuno and Miller. They finished fifth place with their time 4:57.49. Our strong butterflyers on the team: Norman, Sharbuno, Huegerich, and Biskobing showed us their butterfly skills in the 300 Butterfly relay. They finished fifth place with their great time, 3:12.24. The 400 Freestyle relay was swum by: W. Roller, Hadacek, Seitz and M. Huebner. This was another great relay, they finished fifth place with their time, 4:02.55. Tumey, Meier, Biskobing, and M. Roller were up next in the 200 Medley relay. They finished fifth place with their time, 2:06.96. The final event of the evening, the 100 Freestyle relay team: J. Huebner, C. Patterson, G. Patterson, and M. Roller swam a great relay finishing sixth place with their time, 57.14. This meet is really fun and the guys look forward to it! All the events are team events, which takes the pressure of the individual events. We had some really awesome swims, great times and great finishes; and also (and most importantly) plenty of fun had by all! And we finished well as a team which was an awesome bonus!

Score

PIRATES: 48

GREENDALE: 5

The Pirates were in a defensive battle against Greendale to start their showdown at the Rick Majerus Wisconsin Basketball Yearbook Shootout. The Pirates were not able to get going offensively in the first half as they trailed Greendale 26-17 at half. Greendale continued to use their height advantage in the 2nd half but the Pirates were able to continue battling and got the game to 33-30 early in the 2nd half. The Pirates were not able to get enough stops in the 2nd half as Greendale pulled away and won by a final score of 57-48. The Pirates were led by Adam Baierl with 19 points and Zach Uselding with 13 points.

Boys Varsity Hockey

by Buster Hebda

It was a great weekend to be a Pirate on skates! Thursday is the start of the North Shore Tournament. The Ice Bears play Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights at 8 p.m. Thursday night's game against WNS is our P.W.H.S. Spirit Night. We have Shannon Knowski lined up to sing the National Anthem and have a fun giveaway as well as a student raffle planned. Please spread the word and stop by if you can! We hope to have Port students fill the stands.
