CHARACTER COUNTS

The Six Pillars of Character

The CHARACTER COUNTS! approach to character education doesn't exclude anyone. That's why we base our programs and materials on six ethical values that everyone can agree on — values that are not political, religious, or culturally biased. Use the points below to help young people understand the Six Pillars.

Trustworthiness

Be honest • Don't deceive, cheat, or steal • Be reliable — do what you say you'll do • Have the courage to do the right thing • Build a good reputation • Be loyal — stand by your family, friends, and country

Respect

Treat others with respect; follow the Golden Rule • Be tolerant and accepting of differences • Use good manners, not bad language • Be considerate of the feelings of others • Don't threaten, hit or hurt anyone • Deal peacefully with anger, insults, and disagreements

Responsibility

Do what you are supposed to do • Plan ahead • Persevere: keep on trying! • Always do your best • Use self-control • Be self-disciplined • Think before you act — consider the consequences • Be accountable for your words, actions, and attitudes • Set a good example for others

Fairness

Play by the rules • Take turns and share • Be open-minded; listen to others • Don't take advantage of others • Don't blame others carelessly • Treat all people fairly

Caring

Be kind • Be compassionate and show you care • Express gratitude • Forgive others • Help people in need

Citizenship

Do your share to make your school and community better • Cooperate • Get involved in community affairs • Stay informed; vote • Be a good neighbor • Obey laws and rules • Respect authority • Protect the environment • Volunteer

PWHS CHARACTER COUNTS ATHLETES OF THE WEEK

Masuma Zulfaker

Masuma Zulfaker is a senior and member of the Varsity girl's Tennis team. She was also voted as one of this season's captains by her teammates, probably because she comes to every practice and game with a smile on her face and a positive attitude. She is always ready to step up and help out when needed. When asked why she likes tennis, Masuma said it's a fun sport to play because you have to use speed and skill and she also thinks her teammates are great. She's looking forward to her senior year and getting ready for the real world.

Her goal is to attend UW Madison and pursue something in the medical field.

Congratulations Masuma on being selected this week's Character Counts Female Athlete of Week

Sam Lepak

Sam is the starting free safety on the Pirates Varsity Defensive Football Team this season. He has played consistent and tough all season long. This last week against Homestead, Sam had 6 solo tackles and 5 assisted tackles, to lead our defense against a tough Highlander offense.

Sam is a strong leader, not only on football team but in the classroom as well. Sam is on the honor roll and volunteers his time with many fundraising and charitable events. He is a true role model on the field and in our community.

Sam is also a member of the pirate varsity baseball team.

Congratulations Sam on being selected this week's Character Counts Male Athlete of Week

Pirate Athletics Week in Review

BOYS SOCCER

Game 1

After an advantageous start the Pirates took a 2-0 lead over Sheboygan Christian on goals by Alex Huebner and Tyler Grisar. Unfortunately the home team scored 5 unanswered goals in a 2-5 loss for the Pirates in the season opener.

Game 2

After a good start some defensive lapses allowed the Nicolet Knights to pull to a 4-0 halftime lead. But with a storm coming the Pirates came out quickly in the second half and got a goal from Alex Lopez, assisted by Alex Huebner, but could get no closer as the game was stopped shortly thereafter and canceled due to lightening. The Pirates drop a tough one 4-1.

Game 3

The boys had a hard time matching Brown Deer's speed and watched as the Falcons scored 5 goals around Nick Gaulke goal for the loss. 5-1

Game 4

Pirate came out with a stellar effort against the 4th State ranked Bulldogs and were just down 0-1, on a soft penalty call, at the half. Cedarburg's depth took a toll as the game wore on and the boys ended up with a hard fought 0-4 loss.

Game 5

In what was easily their best performance to date, the Pirates' Took a 1-0 lead into halftime on a goal by Tyler Shultis, with an assist from Alex Lopez, and continued to out work the West Bend East Suns when Mason Purtell doubled the lead with a long distance strike to finish the scoring at 2-0. An all around effort proved to be too much for the much improved WB East team to handle. Port Goal Keeper Ethan Heinecke Posted the first shutout of the year for the victorious Pirates.

Check out the action as the Pirates host their annual Port Invitational this week Friday and Saturday. The Pirates will start tournament play @ 7pm on Friday. Game times are posted for 9:30 and 11:30 on Saturday. Hope to see you there.

GIRLS TENNIS

VS. SLINGER

In our first competition, we faced multiple teams at the Slinger invitational.

Kristinia Rossi and Madeline Lerche teamed up to play doubles in the #1 spot, something new for these two singles players. Although they worked really well together as a team, they couldn't quite find their rhythm against other more experienced doubles partners. They lost 1-6, 0-6 to Germantown in the first round and made an attempt to battle back against Kewauskum in the second round, losing 3-6, 2-6.

Maddy Feeney stepped into our three singles spot for the day and showed that no matter what spot she plays, she will give it her all and give her competitor a tough opponent. In the first round, Maddy narrowly lost in tiebreak 6-2, 2-6 with a 6-10 tiebreak score. In the second round she took on Milwaukee King, narrowly losing 2-6, 3-6.

Regan Curtin and Elizabeth Kien teamed up to play doubles and played an excellent game, narrowly losing 5-7, 2-6 to Slinger in the first round and playing an even closer match against West Bend West in the second, losing 4-6, 6-7 with the second set tiebreak of 3-7.

Jacqueline Hansen had a beautiful first round against West Bend East, winning 6-3, 6-3. Her second match was close against Slinger, but after a long day she couldn't quite pull off the win, 4-6, 0-6.

Overall, the girl's played very well against some very good teams.

VS. HOMESTEAD

Although the final results showed a 0-7 loss, the girl's all played very well. Some beautiful shots were made, strategy was utilized and many times Homestead players were caught off guard and frustrated by how well we played. Many games went to deuce and we learned that we are capable of playing against a top team, but need to be aggressive and learn how to close out the point before they do.

VS. NICOLET

Similar to Homestead, we took the courts against this tough opponent and proved we are there to play. Many games went to deuce, we had some beautiful shots and rallies, but in the end, Nicolet took the opportunity to close out the point, winning the match overall 7-0.

VS. SHEBOYGAN SOUTH

The girls went to Sheboygan South Friday and played extremely well. It was a really exciting day, with three of our Varsity singles matches going into tiebreak. Anna Pierringer, playing one singles, was able to pull out the win 4-6, 6-1 and taking the tiebreak 10-4. Kristini Rossi played a beautiful game at two singles, probably her best of the season, losing narrowly in tiebreak 6-4, 5-7, 10-8 tiebreaker. #3 Madeline Lerche took her first set 6-1, lost the second 3-6 and battled back in the tiebreak to win 11-9. Jacqueline Hansen, playing for her first time this season at Varsity, easily took the win 6-2, 6-3.

Doubles struggled a little bit. Newly formed doubles team Rienne Voeller and Ashley Savatski were placed in the number one spot. Although they played well, their opponents were long time partners and it showed. Rienne and Ashley took the games to deuce often, but couldn't pull off the win, losing 0-6, 1-6. Regan Curtin and Laurel Friede, new partners for this season, were moved up to the two doubles spot and played very well. They worked hard, but couldn't quite find their rhythm, losing 3-6, 2-6. In three doubles, new partners Anna Sandberg and Hana Christiansen showed why they were moved up to the three doubles spot. Each game was close, but Sheboygan South pulled off the win 4-6, 5-7
